Increase of Freight Rates After Systems Are Turned Back Is Predicted.

Preserve Your Youthful Vitality

Don't get old before your time. Youthfulness is an attraction very difficult to beat. The fountain of perpetual youth is only a myth, but you can in a great measure preserve your youthful vitality by wearing the Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes.

These shoes stand as guardians over you. They prevent the hard streets and pavements from sapping the very life out of your system. It is one of the ways of defeating "old age."

the country met yesterday in the offices of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, in Grand Central Terminal, to discuss problems that railroads will have to face when they are turned back to their owners on Jan. 1.
The most important subject taken up was the letter from Director General Hines to Thomas De Witt Cuyler, Chairman of the Association of Railway Executives. In this letter Mr.
Hines said the Railroad Administration would be unable to make the necessary readjustment in freight rates to enable the companies to be self-sustaining with the return to private management, and suggested that the companies take steps to bring the matter before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It is certain that the suggestion of Mr. Hines will be followed. The railroad executives left the matter in the hands of the standing committee of twenty-six, which will meet this morning at No. 61 Broadway and probably will take definite action.

Not only is the Government facing a deficit of $300,000,000 on the present year's operation of the roads, which will have to be made up after the return to private ownership, but during the war transportation facilities have failed to keep pace with increased traffic, and the railroads will have to spend large sums of money for equipment and rolling stock.

Mr. Cuyler said after the meeting that resumption of private operation would naturally open several problems of great importance. He added:

"The most serious problem is that of adequate legislation to put railroads on a sound financial footing and enable them to perform their full service to the country. As has been repeatedly pointed out by the Director General, the Government has not been able during the period of Government control to make the full amount of capital expenditures needed to keep the railroads abreast of the growth of the country."

14 HORSES IN LONG RACE.

Army Mounts Will Average Sixty Miles a Day.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 14.—Fourteen horses weighed in last night at Fort Ethan Allen for the 300-mile endurance race under cavalry conditions, which starts this morning. They are to do sixty miles a day, and are scheduled to arrive Saturday night at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass. Seven starters are pure bred Arabs, including Halcron, the mare that won the Morgan endurance test of 1913, and Kingfisher, that carried Major Frank Tompkins furthest south in the pursuit of Francisco Villa.

Two pure and two half-bred Morgans are in the race, ridden by army officers, and one hack, ridden by Col. George of the General Staff. The fourteenth is an old troop horse, the ancestry of which must be only speculative.
No rider may complete his daily sixty miles under ten hours, nor can he ride more than fifteen hours without disqualification. An interesting preliminary feature of the competition was the appearance of Albert W. Harris, Chicago banker, as pilot of W. R. Brown's Arabian mare Kheyrat.

The Army Remount Board, the Department of Agriculture and the General Staff are authorizing the competition in the hope that it will help in determining the ideal type of cavalry remount.
